HEROMYLOS RESORT & SPA

Heromylos Resort & Spa is a contemporary Aegean retreat set amphitheatrically above a secluded bay on the eastern coast of Evia. Facing the sunrise and immersed in warm Mediterranean light, the resort blends natural stone, earthy textures and elegant architectural lines into the surrounding landscape.

The atmosphere is calm, grounded and unpretentious. Here, the rhythm of the sea defines the pace of the day. Mornings unfold slowly under soft golden light, afternoons stretch between private terraces and open horizons, and evenings settle into stillness overlooking the Aegean.

Luxury at Heromylos is quiet and effortless, expressed through space, privacy and a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. It is a place designed for guests who value discretion, authenticity and the undiscovered beauty of the Greek mainland coastline.

Destination

Heromylos Bay, Evia

Evia is one of Greece's most authentic and underexplored regions, a destination defined by raw coastline, mountainous landscapes and a strong sense of local identity. Unlike the more commercial islands, Evia retains a grounded character, where fishing villages, traditional taverns and seasonal rhythms shape everyday life.

Located just two hours from Athens, Heromylos offers a rare balance between accessibility and seclusion. The resort sits near the seaside village of Agioi Apostoloi, where simple waterfront life coexists with the unspoiled beauty of Heromylos Bay.

Evia appeals to travellers seeking a quieter Greece - less curated, more real. It is ideal for those who value nature, crystal-clear waters, authentic gastronomy and the ease of a mainland journey without airport congestion or complex island transfers.

How to get there

By car

- Approximately 2 hours 20 minutes from Athens city center and Athens International Airport.

By car & ferry

- Drive from Athens to Skala Oropos port: approximately 50 minutes
- Ferry crossing (Oropos - Eretria route): approximately 25 minutes
- Drive from the Evia arrival point to Heromylos Resort: approximately 1 hour

Ideal itinerary: Athens & Evia (5-7 nights)

A seamless combination of cultural immersion in Athens followed by coastal relaxation in Evia - ideal for travellers seeking both city vibrancy and an elevated Aegean escape within one journey.

Why it works

Island atmosphere with effortless access

Located in one of Greece's most under-the-radar coastal destinations, Heromylos offers the feeling of an island escape while remaining just two hours from Athens, combining privacy, authenticity and seamless accessibility without complex transfers.

Amphitheatrical design immersed in nature

Positioned along the natural slope of the land and surrounded by sea, olive groves and open landscapes, the architecture ensures uninterrupted views while maintaining layered privacy and spatial separation between accommodations, creating a peaceful environment ideal for relaxation and reconnection.

Holistic wellness with an expansive spa sanctuary

A generous spa sanctuary designed for deep relaxation and renewal, complemented by spectacular sea views and curated treatments inspired by the timeless rituals of Ancient Greece - a space devoted to restoring harmony between body and mind.

Comprehensive resort experience with strong value positioning
